

bolting Democratic candidate for Governor last year. Charles S. Fairchild is another delegate to this convention. He made a speech in opposition to Mr. Hill's election as Governor. Why should these men, who have assailed both the State and the local organizations of the Democratic party, be given seats in the convention? I do not think it would be right or just to admit them to representation."

John F. McIntyre, Assistant District Attorney, another Tammany Hall man, said: "It is proposed to give the State Democracy representation we shall fight the resolution admitting them upon the floor of the convention."

THE FIGHT MAY BE A SHAM ONE.

It would thus appear that there is a prospect of a tussle on the floor of the convention over this proposal to admit the State Democracy. Most politicians say, however, that the fight will be a sham one; that it is one of those comedies which Hill, Sheehan, Croker and Murphy have so frequently played of recent years in this State. It is, perhaps, reasoned that the Democratic party will appear in a better light if, even seemingly, it snubs Tammany Hall and reduces its power. Accordingly, the Tammany Hall delegates will howl with anguish while Mr. Hill is putting through his resolution admitting the State Democracy to seats in the convention, but there will be no real smart or hurt among them. Roswell P. Flower, who knows nothing about politics, has been made to believe by Mr. Hill that there is a prospect of a tremendous fight over the admission of the State Democracy delegates. Accordingly, Mr. Flower, while holding a semi-reception on the second floor of the Yates House to-night, amused the knowing delegates by saying: "Are you in favor of harmony or hell?" Cord Meyer, Jr., the first man to whom this remark was addressed, replied: "The Queens County delegates, Governor, are for harmony." Mr. Flower, doubtless, will by-and-by convince himself that by his support of the harmony programme he saved the Democratic party from a great disaster. The great argument of the Tammany Hall leaders in opposition to the admission of the State Democracy delegates has been that these delegates were unwilling to give a pledge that they will support the Tammany Hall ticket. Charles S. Fairchild, ex-Secretary of the Treasury, who is one of the State Democracy delegates, commenting upon this argument of Tammany Hall leaders, said to-night:

"The only reason why the men who control the machinery of the Democratic party in this State wish to induce the State Democracy delegates to enter the convention is that they do not belong to Tammany Hall. If we were members of Tammany Hall there would be no reason why we should be separately admitted to the convention. It is because Mr. Hill wishes to bring support to the Democratic State ticket that we are invited to enter the convention. But as for local affairs we are independent. We would not surrender our independence of Tammany Hall in local matters in order to gain entrance to this convention."

TAMMANY SECURES THE EMBLEM.
This answer of Mr. Fairchild was conveyed to the Tammany Hall leaders and excited a great feeling of wrath among them. They took precautions, however, at the meeting of the Democratic State Committee subsequently to have a resolution passed giving them control of the "regular" party emblem of the Democratic party in this campaign—a star. The motto of the Democratic party in the fall contest, therefore, will be, slightly paraphrasing Emerson, "Hit your brandy bottle to a star."

Maurice J. Power, one of the leaders of the State Democracy, was greatly amused over what some of the Tammany Hall officials were saying in opposition to the admission of the State Democracy delegates. "It seems to me," he said, "that Hugh McLaughlin manages these affairs much better. If any concessions are to be made he is the fellow who makes them. He does not wait for the State Convention to meet and then endure an open humiliation by its forcing him to make the concessions."

The State Democracy leaders are confident they will be admitted to the convention on the same basis as the Shepard Democrats of Brooklyn, that is, that they will have one-third of the delegates from New York City. In case they would have thirty-five out of 105 delegates, Tammany Hall would be left with seventy delegates. According to the Shepard programme, also, they would have one-third of the New York seats in the Democratic State Convention.

CANDIDATES ON HAND.

Most of the candidates for the nominations for State officers have arrived here. Among them are John B. Judson, of Gloversville, candidate for State Treasurer; Augustus Scheu, of Buffalo, candidate for Controller; and Daniel G. Griffin, of Watervliet, candidate for Attorney-General. The nomination for Governor is certain to be between Mr. Griffin for Attorney-General. At present he has no opponent. The singular fact was disclosed to-day that the Kings County delegates have no candidates for State officers. It has been supposed that they would nominate General Horatio C. King for Secretary of State, but they decline to favor any one. It is therefore possible that some other man may lead the Kings County ticket that General King. It was reported to-day that General Peter C. Doyle, of Buffalo, might be nominated for Secretary of State, but he said he would not be a candidate for Secretary of State against General King, who was his personal friend, and also nominated for a candidate for any position on the State ticket, since Erie County was already pressing Augustus F. Scheu for that nomination. Mr. Doyle may, however, have run for the nomination for Controller and may be nominated.

It also appears as though John B. Judson, of Gloversville, would be nominated for State Treasurer. Ex-State Treasurer Francis C. Smith, of Bridgeport, Chenango County, was here to-day pressing the nomination of David Clinton Dow, of Schoharie, for State Treasurer. Mr. Dow is brother of the late General David Clinton Dow, of Schoharie. Mr. Danforth said that Schoharie County had not had a Democratic nomination since William C. Bourke was nominated for Governor in 1842. The State Treasurer's ring, it is suspected, is pushing Dow for the nomination.

The nomination for Judge of the Court of Appeals is much in doubt. It was stated by Senator Rice, of Kingston, to-night that Judge Alton B. Parker, of Ulster County, is a candidate for the position. John D. Teller, of Auburn, is a candidate for the Judgeship. Congressman Sulzer says that Judge Charles E. Brown, of the Supreme Court, may be nominated for the position. George Clinton Ward, of Boinville, is in the lead for the nomination for State Engineer. It is possible that ex-Controller Theodore W. Meyer, of New York, may be nominated for State Controller. Ex-Senator Norton Chase, of Albany, may become a candidate for Controller. Sylvester Mahan, of Sandy Hill, announced himself as a candidate for State Treasurer this evening. Frank Campbell stated that he had not been and would not be a candidate for State Controller. Andrew C. Fields, of Dobbs Ferry, will be supported for Controller by the Westchester County delegates.

PROMINENT DEMOCRATS PRESENT.

Among the prominent Democrats who have arrived here are Senators Hill and Murphy, ex-Governor Roswell P. Flower, ex-Lieutenant-Governor William F. Sheehan, ex-Congressman Daniel M. Lockwood, of Buffalo, ex-Congressman Charles Tracy, of Albany; Henry D. Purroy, of New York; Charles W. Bessall, of Governor Lester Peabody and Thomas F. Farrell, of Brooklyn; Charles S. Fairchild, Robert Grier Monroe, John R. Fellows, ex-Mayor Thomas F. Gilroy, Senator Charles L. Gay and Morris P. Brown, of New York; ex-Deputy Governor Edwin J. Huson, of Penn Yan; John Flanagan, of Canandaigua; Cord Meyer, Jr., of Queens County; Mayor Malloy, of Troy; E. Prentiss Bailey, of Utica; George W. V. Meade, of M. M. Smith, of Rochester; George Soper, of Elkhart; John Boyd Thacher, of Albany; Frank Rice, of Canandaigua; Edward Wemple, of Fultonville, and Congressman Ryan.

Ex-Governor Flower when asked to give Democratic sentiment in Watervliet to-night replied:

"Pills aid digestion, prevent that feeling of fullness and distress, and gently yet effectively assist in the assimilation and digestion of food. They do not gripe or weaken, but strengthen and stimulate. All druggists."

AN ELEGANT TOILET LUXURY.

"No sumptuous laws, for home rule and the personal liberty of the citizen." This is probably Mr. Flower's Sunday House plan.

Ex-Controller Frank Campbell, of Bath, when asked today what the rural Democrats were thinking about excise affairs, replied: "We are in favor of home rule for cities respecting excise affairs."

"Do you mean by that that you favor permitting cities to open saloons on Sunday if they so vote?"

"That is exactly what such a plank will mean," replied Mr. Campbell.

Congressman H. C. Miner, of New York, when asked his opinion on the Sunday excise question, replied: "What we want is home rule. That's what the people want, and that is what they are going to have. The poor man who works six days in the week for his living and works six days in the week he is the man who wants a liberal excise law. He is the man who wants a law which will allow him to go to a saloon on Sunday and get a drink of beer, and he is the man who is going to work for the success of the Democratic party. He knows when he is well off. He wanted, or he thought he wanted, 'home rule' last year. Well, he got it, and I do not believe he wants any more of it. I have no hesitation in saying that I am in favor of a liberal excise law. I am in favor of home rule as far as that is concerned, and it is my opinion that a plank to that effect will be introduced into the platform at the convention to-morrow. It will be to the advantage of the workingman for the convention to introduce this plank, and it is the workingman's interest that the Democratic party is looking after."

The convention will meet at noon to-morrow, and ex-Congressman Perry Belmont will be named as temporary chairman. The committee will adjourn until 4 p. m., when ex-Governor Flower will be introduced as the permanent chairman. After the adjournment of the State, the convention will adjourn over till Wednesday, when the real work of the convention will be done.

TAMMANY MEN SULLEN.

THEY DO NOT FANCY GIVING WAY TO THE GRACE BOLTERS.

DISAPPOINTED THAT CROKER WILL NOT BE WITH THEM IN THE CONVENTION—MEETING OF THE STATE COMMITTEE—THEIR EMBLEM A STAR.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

Syracuse, Sept. 23.—At a late hour to-night the question as to whether the New-York State Democracy's delegates shall be admitted to seats in the convention or whether their overtures shall be rejected has not been settled. The Democratic State Committee has adjourned after a long session on the top floor of the Yates House without touching the State Democracy's case. The committee will hold another session at 9:30 o'clock to-morrow morning, when it is understood the political conditions in New-York County will be discussed. Next to the excise question the admission of the Grace-Fairchild men has been the principal topic of the day. The special trains which left New-York this morning bringing the Tammany Hall men did not reach this city until after midnight. The first section, which James W. Boyle had charge of, was detained at Little Falls for three-quarters of an hour to-day by a hot box, and came in after the first Tammany section. The special train bearing the State Democracy men also not in ahead of the delayed Wigwam section. William R. Grace was not among his "Cuckoo" followers, and Corporation Counsel Scott and ex-Judge Maurice J. Power, who arrived early this morning, said that Mr. Grace had positively decided not to attend the convention.

Richard Croker, after a day spent at Saratoga in consultation with his partner, Mr. Murphy, and with Mr. Hill, came to a conclusion similar to that of Mr. Grace. The 700 braves who got into the city to-night were disappointed to hear on their arrival that they were not to have the presence and encouragement of their chief in the trying ordeal which awaits them.

Ex-Mayor Hugh J. Grant is as yet also among the missing, but assurances were given this evening that he will be on hand before the convention meets this morning.

Tammany men already on the ground had all day declared their purpose to fight the admission of the State Democracy, but on the arrival of the rank and file of the delegations to-night the notes of defiance became louder and aggressive. Senator Hill's attitude on the subject was severely criticized, and it was charged that the scheme was the product of the Tammany delegates' selfishness. Few of the Tammany delegates cared to talk for publication, as they said they were without information regarding the course the organization would pursue in the convention. Under no circumstances would they hear of giving up a third of the State representation to the "bolting" Grace-Fairchild men.

The most strenuous assurances that they would support the regular Democratic local ticket in New-York this fall, Charles S. Fairchild, the present head of the "Cuckoos," soon let it be known that the delegates he represented would refuse to accept seats in the convention under any such conditions as Tammany sought to make. Mr. Fairchild's adjutants, including Mr. Scott, Mr. Power and Colonel Monroe, backed up Mr. Fairchild's statement and said that they would never consent to act with Tammany in local matters.

Ex-Sheriff Charles E. Remick, of Madison County, Mr. Fairchild's home prior to his removal to New-York City, who heads the delegates to the convention from that county, took frequent occasion to-day to make public his sympathy with Tammany Hall in the matter. "We'll let Mr. Fairchild and his friends in," said the Madison County leader, "if they give bonds that they will support the Democratic ticket from top to bottom, but on no other conditions."

"Wouldn't you take Fairchild's word for it?" Mr. Remick was asked.

"Not by a d—d sight," was the reply. "They must give bonds."

Mr. Fairchild is president of a trust company. He therefore can give bonds.

The usual meeting of the Democratic State Committee began at 8:40 this evening in its quarters at the Yates House. Senator Hill made his appearance, carrying a big package of papers which, it was said, referred to the enlargement of the Democratic State Committee, but the Senator did not broach that subject at the meeting. He took the place of James R. Day, of the XXIXth District, who was absent. Major James W. Hinkley, of Poughkeepsie, presided, and Charles R. DeForest, of Troy, was secretary. The following were present:
